Aims & Objectives

Introduction

Our Statement of Purpose is written to comply with Regulation 12 of the Care Quality Commission (Registration) Regulations 2009.

About Mariners Park

Mariners' Park offers accommodation for retired seafarers and their dependants. Provided by the Nautilus Welfare Fund, it is a unique place to live. The residents care and support is our main priority and we have been operating for over 160 years.

The extra care accommodation based in the Trinity House Hub provides one- and two-bedroom apartments specifically designed to meet the needs of older people. The onsite communal facilities include a health suite, café, hobbies room, laundry, hair salon, bistro, games room, plus 24-hour care staff.

Mariners Park also offers a domiciliary care service, which provide support from cleaning to shopping, laundry as well as supporting those with personal care needs such as washing, dressing, preparing meals and support and medication. There are currently 10 residents receiving personal care at Mariners Park. We also offer domestic calls to residents at Mariners Park.

Our Purpose

Our purpose as a domiciliary care provider is to deliver personalized, high-quality, and compassionate in-home care services to retired seafarers. Our mission is rooted in our deep respect and admiration for the individuals who have dedicated their lives to navigating the seas, ensuring global trade, and often risking their lives in the process. Now, as they enjoy their well-earned retirement, we believe it is our duty to ensure they receive the care, support, and dignity they deserve.

Mariners' Park has a wide range of options available to ensure that retired seafarers and their dependants find the home that suits them.

Core Values

Respect: We understand the unique challenges and experiences our clients have faced in their seafaring careers. We respect their stories, their bravery, and their contributions, treating everyone with the dignity and honour they deserve.

Quality Care: We strive to provide the highest standard of care, tailored to the individual needs of each client. We ensure our staff is highly trained, compassionate, and dedicated to their roles.

Independence: We aim to support our clients in maintaining their independence and lifestyle as much as possible, providing assistance only where necessary and promoting self-care and autonomy.

Objectives

To provide personalized, comprehensive in-home care services to retired seafarers, addressing their physical, emotional, and social needs.

To promote the health, wellbeing, and independence of our residents, ensuring they can enjoy their retirement in the comfort and familiarity of their own homes.

To create a supportive and understanding environment, recognizing the unique experiences and challenges of retired seafarers.

The Nominated Person

Andrew Jones, Director of Welfare and Care, is responsible for delivering the Nautilus Welfare Fund strategy, as approved by the Nautilus Council and for the day-to-day management of all services provided by the Nautilus Welfare Fund.

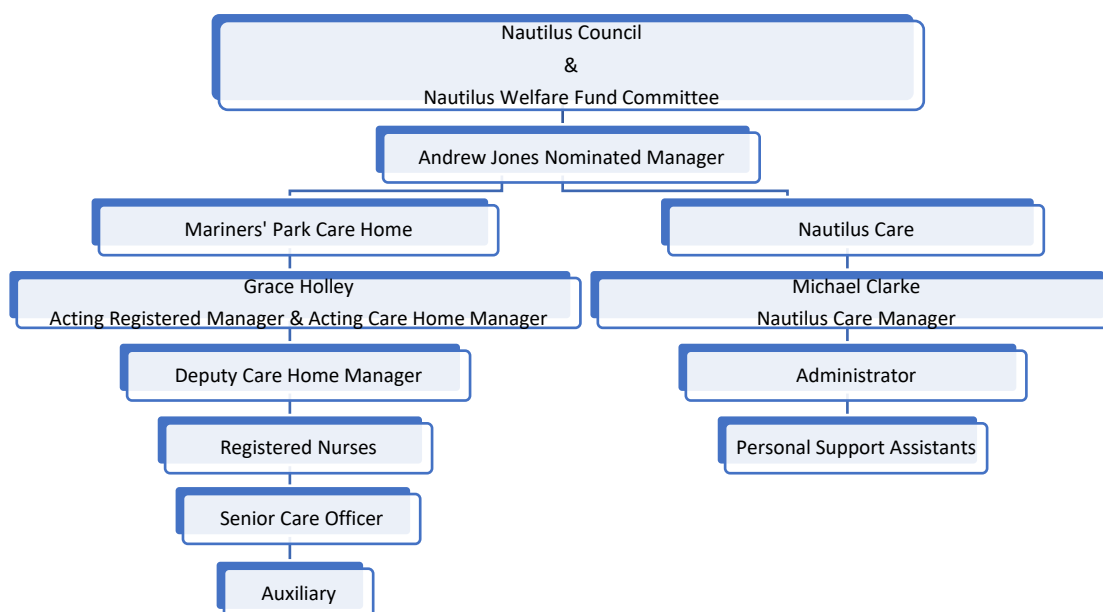

The Registered Manager

Michael Clarke, who is working towards his Level 5 qualification in Adult Health and Social Care, is the Nautilus Care Manager at Mariners Park. He is also in the process of completing his application to be the Registered Manager of the service.

Nautilus Care Team

The total staff establishment for Nautilus Care is approximately 19 involving direct care for residents. The relevant qualifications and experience of the care staff are as follows:.

- Care certificate for all new employees who have not completed a level 2 or 3 qualification.
- QCF Levels 2 and 3 and 5.

Our Services

Our services are designed to meet a wide range of needs, including but not limited to:

Personal Care: Assisting with daily activities such as bathing, dressing, and meal preparation.

Medical Care: Coordinating with healthcare providers to manage medications, appointments, and treatments.

Emotional Support: Providing companionship, conversation, and emotional support.

Physical Assistance: Helping with mobility and physical exercise, tailored to the client's abilities and needs.

Household Management: Assisting with tasks like cleaning, shopping, and managing bills.

Commitment

We are committed to providing a safe, respectful, and supportive service that recognizes the unique needs of retired seafarers. We will continuously strive to improve, adapt, and expand our services in response to feedback and evolving needs.

In conclusion, our purpose is not just to provide care, but to enhance the quality of life for our retired seafarers, acknowledging their service, and ensuring they can enjoy their retirement with the dignity, respect, and care they deserve.
